Row in Wisconsin Leads to Party Split.

An Independent Democratic Ticket Promised.

Delegates Disgusted With Do-Nothing Policy.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

MILWAUKEE, July 22.—Disgusted over the failure of the State Democratic Convention to accomplish anything, fifty or sixty delegates from various parts of the State got together this afternoon and agreed to circulate nomination papers for a State ticket, to be led by J. A. Schmitz, of Milwaukee.

The ticket agreed upon by the caucus is as follows:

Governor — A. J. Schmitz of Milwaukee.

Lieutenant Governor — Bert Adams of Ashland.

Secretary of State — Miles T. Gitting of Monroe.

Insurance Commissioner — William Guilford of Madison.

Treasurer — William F. Pierstorff of Middleton.

Attorney General — Evans Evans of Baraboo.

Those at the caucus promised that they would take immediate steps to get out nomination papers for the men mentioned in the above list.

BRYAN HAS MANY VISITORS.

Most Important Arrival of Day at Fairview is Josephus Daniels of North Carolina.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

FAIRVIEW (Lincoln, Neb.) July 22.—A steady stream of visitors at Fairview kept William J. Bryan on the job all day and tonight. They began coming early in the morning and included returning delegates to the Denver convention, politicians, representatives of a negro Bryan and Kern club, members of the local order of Moosebees and many others who came out merely to pay their respects. It was perhaps one of the busiest days in the Democratic candidate's life since he arrived here.

Probably the most important visitor was Josephus Daniels of Raleigh, N. C., proprietor of the News and Observer, National Committee member and member of the subcommittee of eleven to select a chairman and other officers of the committee. His friendship and political judgment are highly prized by Mr. Bryan, and for this reason he was summoned here for a conference with special reference to conditions in the Southern States.

The Democratic nominee was assured that the South would be fought for him and that the claims alleged to emanate from Republican sources that they would carry North Carolina, Virginia and Georgia were but dog-day politics.

Not the least interesting happening of the day was the visit of the local negroes, heretofore staunch Republicans, who called to pledge their active support to the Democratic ticket. They were accorded a hearty welcome, and urged by Mr. Bryan to keep in touch with their colored brethren throughout the country and work harmoniously toward Democratic success.

BRYAN QUILTS "COMMONER."

Democratic Nominee Gives up Paper to Devote Himself to Presidential Campaign.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

LINCOLN, Neb., July 22.—William J. Bryan has retired after active work on the "Commoner," and will not be personally responsible for matter appearing in it during the present campaign.

Charles W. Bryan will be the publisher, and Richard L. Metcalf, the editor, during the campaign. The following statement was issued by Mr. Bryan relative to the change in the editorial staff:

"My candidacy makes it necessary for me to suspend editorial work, and I desire to have it known that I shall not be held personally responsible for matter appearing in the Commoner during the campaign, except that which appears over my signature."

"My brother, Charles W. Bryan, who has charge of the paper, will assume control on November 1, and the present editor, Richard L. Metcalf, will during that time be editor."

"The Commoner will publish such speeches and letters as I may prepare for the general public, and the readers of the Commoner will have full and accurate information as to the issues discussed. I bespeak for the paper the cordial support which, from the beginning, has made my connection with it so pleasant."

"All profits from the Commoner over and above actual expenses from new until election day, will be turned over to the Democratic National Committee for the benefit of the campaign."

(Signed) "W. J. BRYAN."

SHERMAN TO TAKE STUMP.

HITCHCOCK'S PLAN.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

LINCOLN, Neb., July 22.—While stopping in Lincoln for half an hour this afternoon on his way East, Chairman Frank Hitchcock stated that he planned a speaking trip through Nebraska for James S. Sherman in October.

He also expected to send Senators Beveridge and Doolittle and other Republicans of national fame to Nebraska, expecting a bitter fight from the State. William H. Taft will not come to Nebraska under the present program, according to Mr. Hitchcock. His campaign will be conducted from his porch at Cincinnati similar to the first campaign of William McKinley.

Mr. Hitchcock stated that he had never seen a better split manifested among political workers than among the State chairman and national committee men who met in Colorado Springs. All seemed ready and anxious to take off their coats and work.

DOUGLAS IS OUT.

QUITS POLITICS.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

MONUMENT BEACH (Mass.) July 22.—"I am out of politics forever," declared former Gov. Wm. L. Douglas today when upon his return from a yachting trip of several days, he was questioned concerning the reports from Lincoln, Neb., that he might be named as chairman of the Democratic National Committee. Mr. Douglas said he was not aware that his name was being considered for that position.

"I have not been offered the chairmanship of the Democratic National Committee," he said, "and while I shall deeply appreciate the compliment of it if tendered to me, I shall not accept, as I am out of politics forever. This is final."

Acceptance to Be Announced When National Committee Meets in Chicago for Organization on Next Saturday — Speech-Making Tour Planned.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

OKLAHOMA, July 22.—Gov. C. N. Haskell has been tendered the treasurership of the Democratic National Committee. Formal announcement, carrying his acceptance, it is stated, will be made when the committee meets for organization in Chicago next Saturday. Before the national convention, the Bryan forces urged the Oklahoma Executive to take the active management of the campaign. The appointment would have necessitated for him to leave the State for any length of time, a condition said to have been largely responsible for the Governor's decision.

It is Gov. Haskell's present intention to attend the Chicago meeting. Later he intends to devote some time to making a campaign tour of the State, before the committee's pleasure before making arrangements here. He will appear in Ohio, Iowa and other Central States and perhaps as far West as California.

FAIRBANKS GREET PRINCE OF WALES.

Celebration of 300th Anniversary of Founding of Quebec Forms Notable Occasion in History of Anglo-American Friendship.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

QUEBEC, July 22.—The Prince of Wales was the central figure to-day in the magnificent spectacle of reproducing Quebec's historic past and ushering in the 300th anniversary of the founding of the city of Champlain.

Aside from the spectacular features of the event, it was the occasion for a notable exchange of addresses between Vice-President Fairbanks and the Prince of Wales, in which each spoke of the existing relations between the United States and Great Britain, and the Prince delivered a message of good will to the American government.

An enormous crowd filled the Place Des Armes, fronting the Champlain monument, where the exercises were held. Here the Prince received the addresses of the American and French representatives, the Mayor of Quebec, and finally Champlain, himself, reproduced in the days of old, coming from the river in a small boat.

The warships are outlined in electric lights, marking every line of hull and rigging, while the Parliament and many other buildings are similarly outlined.

From the citadel the Prince is looking across the St. Lawrence at the gaudy display of fireworks on the Heights of Levis, showing in fiery outlines portraits of King Edward, the Duke of Montserrat and the Battle of Wolfe and Montcalm.

VICE-PRESIDENT TO PRINCE.

In addressing the Prince during the exercises, Vice-President Fairbanks said:

"Your Royal Highness: I acknowledge with grateful appreciation the welcome which you so generously extend. The sentiments which you are pleased to express with regard to my country receive with profound gratification. They are renewed evidence of that respect and cordial regard which the United States and Great Britain will tend to strengthen and preserve their amicable relations."

"I have found in successful attempts at suicide," said Dr. Gregory, "that the method at hand has been suggested by a newspaper publication."

RAILROAD RECORD. CUT RATES IN THE WEST.

Passenger Association Grants
Reduced Fares.

Conventions and State Fairs
Are Favored.

Cent and a Half Per Mile for Excursions.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CHICAGO, July 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Western railroads have decided to make reduced rates everywhere in the territory west of Chicago to the Pacific Coast for conventions and state fairs. At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Western Passenger Association, held today, representatives of the fair associations of the States of Iowa, Illinois, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Nebraska, Kansas and Missouri, were received, and their petitions for reduced rates were listened to.

The Great Western and the Alton roads took the lead in shattering what remained of the 2-cent minimum rate movement. The former road gave notice that it would make a rate of 1 1/2 cents for the fairs in Iowa, Minnesota, Illinois and Missouri, and then the Alton representatives said that road would make it for all State fairs. Similar rates will be made for all conventions at which there is an attendance of 1000 or more.

Chairman of Interstate Commerce Commission Points to Advantage of Having Stocks and Bonds Guar-

Speculation.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, July 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Federal supervision of railroads will come in the near future in the opinion of Chairman Knapp, of the Interstate Commerce Commission. He believes that investment will be in increasing measure substituted for speculation in securities.

"The securities of railroads and great industries," said Mr. Knapp, "represent a very large proportion of the subjects of quick and easy investment. Instead of investing in these directly, the banks have found that New York was ready to pay attractive interest on their balances, the New York banks being able to do this because they could loan the money to people dealing in these securities."

"Thus the man who deposits his $500 or $1000 in a country bank, which in turn deposits it in New York, becomes, in fact, though indirectly, an investor in the securities in which New York banks deal. But he insists on the security of the bank's credit standing between him and his investment."

"The new currency law doubtless will tend to encourage direct investment throughout a wider area because banks will want to equip themselves with the most acceptable security on which they may issue currency. The tendency to private investment will grow at the same time."

"This will promote a wider knowledge of and interest in the immense mass of securities which represent a great proportion of the wealth of the nation. It will lessen the volume of those securities held in a speculative way, will reduce the possibility and also the danger of manipulation of the market with disastrous results."

"When that time comes, the country will demand guarantees of the value which such securities represent. It will want to know that there is $1000 of good value back of a $1000 bond. It will insist on knowing that the showing of earnings, expenses, property, etc., made by a corporation, is honest. All this will require means that in order to protect the investing public, and to assure that legitimate corporations shall be able to raise money for proper purposes, the government must establish a system by which the public shall be informed of these things. We shall have legislation along this line and I believe it will come the sooner for reason of the events of the last few months."

RAILROADS CONTINUE REPORTS.

ALL SHOW DEFICITS.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS NIGHT REPORT.)

SACRAMENTO, July 23.—The State Board of Equalization had an easy time of it today. Three railroads, the Western Pacific, B. & N. and Loyton and Yosemite Valley Railway were to have been heard, but owing to the illness of J. L. Smith, representative of the two first-named lines, the Yosemite Valley Railway was the only road heard. It was decided to allow Smith additional time. He will appear on Monday. As was the case yesterday, all three roads reported deficits.

J. H. Ellis, representing the Yosemite Valley, was questioned on various matters in connection with the operation of his line. His statement, as rendered to the board, was as follows: Yosemite Valley Railroad Company: Length of system in State, 47.731 miles; value of roadway, roadbed and rails, $154,853; gross earnings from operation, $125,123.97; operating expenses, $113,504.22; total net income, $11,619.75; interest on funded debt accrued, $15,700; interest on interest-bearing securities, $294.61; total deductions from income, $15,994.61; deficit, $4,374.86.

The Western Pacific and B. & N. and Loyton statements are as follows: Western Pacific Railroad Company: Length of system in State, 40.6 miles; value entire roadway, roadbed and rails, $114,500; gross earnings from operation, $109,671.48; operating expenses, $127,320.42; net income from operation, $18,351.06; interest on funded debt accrued, $25,000; other deductions, $15,000; total deduction from income, $40,000; deficit, $21,648.94.

DALLAS (Tex.), July 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A political tragedy, growing out of the fight on United States Senator Bailey last winter, was enacted at Commerce, Tex., today. E. C. Gaines, running for reelection to the Legislature, met his opponent, J. W. Reese, and shot him down on the street, inflicting mortal wounds.

Gaines fired his revolver several times, one bullet taking effect in Reese's right lung. Both men were candidates for the Democratic nomination for the Legislature in next Saturday's primaries and political differences led to the shooting. Mr. Gaines is the present member of the Legislature from Commerce county, and during the last session attracted attention by his opposition to Senator Bailey.

RESEARCHE RECORD BROKEN.

BALTIMORE (Md.), July 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Baltimore City Police Department today broke a record by making daily and nightly flights in its airplane from a suburban amusement resort, claims to have made new records for both distance and speed in a flight this morning, from Arlington to and around the City Hall. The distance, four miles, was made without a stop in thirty-three minutes.

An average height of 500 feet was maintained with some difficulty, owing to the effect of atmospheric conditions by clouds and sunshine. An automobile which followed the airplane was distanced on the return trip.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CHICAGO, July 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Western railroads have decided to make reduced rates everywhere in the territory west of Chicago to the Pacific Coast for conventions and state fairs. At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Western Passenger Association, held today, representatives of the fair associations of the States of Iowa, Illinois, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Nebraska, Kansas and Missouri, were received, and their petitions for reduced rates were listened to.

The Great Western and the Alton roads took the lead in shattering what remained of the 2-cent minimum rate movement. The former road gave notice that it would make a rate of 1 1/2 cents for the fairs in Iowa, Minnesota, Illinois and Missouri, and then the Alton representatives said that road would make it for all State fairs. Similar rates will be made for all conventions at which there is an attendance of 1000 or more.

Eight are alleged to have been committed by the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific road.

Today's session ended the work of the grand jury and it was discharged by Judge K. M. Landis in the United States District Court. (BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, July 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Federal supervision of railroads will come in the near future in the opinion of Chairman Knapp, of the Interstate Commerce Commission. He believes that investment will be in increasing measure substituted for speculation in securities.

"The securities of railroads and great industries," said Mr. Knapp, "represent a very large proportion of the subjects of quick and easy investment. Instead of investing in these directly, the banks have found that New York was ready to pay attractive interest on their balances, the New York banks being able to do this because they could loan the money to people dealing in these securities."

"Thus the man who deposits his $500 or $1000 in a country bank, which in turn deposits it in New York, becomes, in fact, though indirectly, an investor in the securities in which New York banks deal. But he insists on the security of the bank's credit standing between him and his investment."

"The new currency law doubtless will tend to encourage direct investment throughout a wider area because banks will want to equip themselves with the most acceptable security on which they may issue currency. The tendency to private investment will grow at the same time."

"This will promote a wider knowledge of and interest in the immense mass of securities which represent a great proportion of the wealth of the nation. It will lessen the volume of those securities held in a speculative way, will reduce the possibility and also the danger of manipulation of the market with disastrous results."

"When that time comes, the country will demand guarantees of the value which such securities represent. It will want to know that there is $1000 of good value back of a $1000 bond. It will insist on knowing that the showing of earnings, expenses, property, etc., made by a corporation, is honest. All this will require means that in order to protect the investing public, and to assure that legitimate corporations shall be able to raise money for proper purposes, the government must establish a system by which the public shall be informed of these things. We shall have legislation along this line and I believe it will come the sooner for reason of the events of the last few months."

TALE OF THE WILDERNESS.
HALF INSANE
WHEN FOUND.

Two Princeton Men Spend
Days in Terror.

Wander in Darkness in the Michigan Woods.

Kill Bear With Naked Hands
in Their Madness.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CHICAGO, July 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Inter Ocean received tonight the following from Marquette, Mich.: Half insane, blood-maddened, eyes staring, reeking of dank swamp odors, with their ragged clothing hanging from their bodies, two Princeton University students, who were members of the searching party, did not recognize the physical wreck into which his son had fallen in the starving, cold days of the winter wilderness.

A prey for wild animals by day and fear, traveling in a circle in their unwholesome, cold, and filthy conditions, the men excited the pity of the entire city when the slowly-moving caravan of returning searchers brought back their families. They had been lost for a week in the woods and, not expecting to remain away from their homes for more than a day or two, failed to provide themselves with supplies for a lengthy trip.

LOST ON FIRST DAY.

On the first day out they were lost. A poor compass directed them from their course, and before they were aware of the danger into which they had fallen, they were miles from a settlement and in the depth of the forest.

The ground in the swampy district is swampy and covered with the rotting remains of trees and stumps. Decaying trunks of trees heaped in grotesque array make progress slow, and dense growths of vines and undergrowth make it difficult to find a way out.

Without matches to make fires or to combat the swarms of stinging insects, Nyquist and Peppas were pitifully bitten and stung by mosquitoes and small insects. Foodless, they wandered for the entire period, excepting for the brief rest when they devoured as they found them.

The most horrifying of their experience was the third day out, when they were ready to fall from exhaustion and became a prey for the wolves. A huge black bear crashed through the brush and advanced on the men.

BATTLE WITH BEAR.

Hopeless as the men thought themselves, the spark of life was yet strong. With their little remaining strength they fought. The sharp claws of the bear laid open a gash in Peppas's arm. Another blow from the steel-like claws tore the skin from Nyquist's face.

The men sought refuge in a tree. With almost superhuman effort they reached the first branches of a poplar only to find the bear climbing directly behind them. The sharp claws began a fight for life. Peppas struck and smothered the bear with the last remaining vitality in his body.

Unable to hold to the tree longer the bear slid to the ground. Singularly enough the men, too, were so weary that they could no longer cling to the tree and they descended. The bear made a renewed attack. With the final spurt of life and hope the men grappled with the bear. They both lost consciousness. As the searchers came through the dense undergrowth they came upon two semblances of human and a dead bear.

The bodies of the men were found clutched in a death grip the throat of a black bear.

Heart Disease, Case Is Postponed.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS DAY REPORT.)

CHICAGO, July 23.—Death suddenly interrupted a church divorce trial yesterday at the home of Rabbi Lazarus Anshin. Three rabbis, sitting as judges in the case, were deliberating on the evidence submitted by the parties to the divorce, when Rabbi M. Hamburger, of the Tiphereth Zion congregation, was stricken with heart disease. He died in a few minutes.

The divorce case was that of Lewis Flaxman and his wife, Celia. Rabbi Anshin, who presided over the trial, was stricken while he was reading the case which would be indefinitely postponed.

Rabbi Hamburger was 68 years old. He came to Chicago from Russia five years ago, and at once became active in work among the Jews of the north-west side.

He is a hardened criminal, having served former terms in prison, while Dabner is a youth from the country, who has not before been in trouble, and who was expected by the prison officials to be the first to show signs of weakness. To their surprise, he is holding up bravely, while Stemen appears to be a victim of cowardice, amounting almost to terror. It is said that unless the execution is postponed, Stemen will be the first to show signs of weakness. (BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SAN FRANCISCO, July 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Bernard's home run, with Hosp ahead of him after a two-base hit, clinched the argument for the Angels today and assured them a contest in which they had already taken a lead in the earlier innings. The score was 2 to 1 when the seventh inning and Bernard's home run came to hand. After that explosion was over, the Seals, who had shown a flash of speed in the sixth, subsided and the balance of the contest was commonplace.

It was not only a Bernard day because of the over-the-fence effort, but Hosp showed in good style. Save for one inning, when the San Francisco aggregation gathered three hits and one run, the Angel twirler had things his own way. He gave but three hits outside of the trio and was never in any danger.

Ellis broke the ice with the opening run in the second inning. He singled to left, was sent along to third when Delmas poked the ball into right, and was scored by Easterly's long sacrifice fly to Melchior in right. By rights, Ellis should have been retired on a double play at the plate, for Melchior made a perfect throw, but Berry muffed the catch.

The second Los Angeles tally came in the fourth, when George Wheeler walked, stole second and went to third on Ellis's infield single, scoring on the squeeze play that was perfectly worked by Delmas.

The one great chance of the Seals came in the sixth. Mohler and Hildebrand opened with singles and were sacrificed along by Zeller. Williams popped to Dillon and after Melchior had walked, Curtis hit to center, giving Mohler the only mark on the seal score sheet, as McCarty was out on a grounder.

The southerners made their closing rally with Easterly's home run. Hosp doubled and Bernard with the home run. The ball topped over the wire fence, although it looked as if it might come back into the lot.

Oscar Jones, who has fallen into the losing column, was replaced in the eighth by Heuser, who finished the game without disaster. The score:

PORTLAND (Or), July 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Today made three straight for the rejuvenated Athenians, with the score 2 to 1. The locals were wholly lacking at the sticking game when some of the runners did manage to get on the path. Portland had several chances to add five more runs at least, but did not improve them. Instead, Kinsella gave the visitors one run.

Hardy was on the mole hill for the visitors, and issued seven passes, and was found for seven hits, but the sum total for the locals was one run. Kinsella, despite the fact that Oakland scored one in the fifth and another in the seventh, allowed only one ball to be hit out of the diamond, and this was Altman's drive over Johnson's head, scoring Egan, in the seventh.

For four innings Kinsella sent the Oaks back to the bench as often as they faced him, and not one hit the ball hard enough to raise the dust.

In the fifth Egan got a pass. Hogan sent him on his way, and when Miller grounded out to Danzig, Egan went to third. Altman's single was fielded by the local finger, but he threw over Danzig's head and Egan galloped home.

Egan opened the seventh with a bouncer past the box, that Johnson missed. Hogan bunted, but got to first safely. Miller, the slugger of the two previous games, fanned. Altman hit a hot one out on the lot and Egan registered for the second time. Lewis fanned and Hardy hit to Kinsella.

The one run for the home guard came in the first. They threatened in the ninth. Marshall was sent to bat instead of Kinsella, but his long fly was caught by Heilmuller. Ryan batted over Egan, and was safe at first. Basse walked, and so did Raftery, filling the cushions. The score was up next, but he could not pull the team out of the hole. With two strikes and three balls called by Umpire O'Connell, Ryan took a long lead and Hardy caught him off the bag and that made three down.

Many Well-Known Animals Are to Be Seen on the Benches and the Exhibits Generally Are Classy. Awards Made Yesterday and Show Will Continue Till Saturday Night.

Quietly and without any particular blare of trumpets, the second annual bench show of the Venice Kennel Club opened yesterday afternoon for a three days' exhibition in the skating rink at Venice, and while the crowd of visitors in the afternoon was not large, there was a better attendance in the evening. Owing to the show being held in the midsummer season, when the majority of the dog owners are trying to take life easily, there are only about 110 animals on exhibition and while many of these are young dogs, there are high-class ones in the older divisions and many well-known specimens are to be seen. Among these are the St. Bernard bitch Montana, the Great Dane Major, the Russian wolfhound Neva, Maj. Phipps' pair of English foxhounds, Tom Savage's Irish setter Marc, a brace of Freeman Ford's Dalmatians, the English bull dog Monarch, Mrs. Edsel's French bulldogs and toys and three of J. W. Brooks' Boston terriers.

For various reasons, a number of dogs that were entered were not benched, as is always the rule, but there are a sufficient number of the standard breeds shown to form a very interesting exhibit.

Excitement centering Jim Jeffries was not present yesterday, but he is represented by a very homely bulldog, entered by Freddie Maize, and called Metropolitan J. J. Jeffries. This dog is entered in the novice and limit classes for dogs under forty-five pounds and is usually enough to win a prize.

The bench show committee consists of R. T. Cochran, Freeman Ford and Kingsley Stevens, while the judge is James Ewins. Practically all of the judging was completed yesterday.

COFFROTH BUSY.
WANTS GANS-NELSON GO.
(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
SAN FRANCISCO, July 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The collapse of the Gans-Nelson $50,000 fight at Ely, Nev., has set the San Francisco promoters to working for this battle that means big money. A return match between the Dane and the negro would draw better than any other combination, and Coffroth is busy trying to close a deal for a forty-five-round contest on Admission Day, September 3. As soon as Willie Britt reaches here tomorrow negotiation will begin.

Britt, who is Nelson's new manager, will favor the largest purse. He also is strong for a return fight with Gans, as he believes this involves less risk for Nelson. Britt says daily he regards Gans as all in and return fight with Nelson as a walkover for the Dane.

Sally will go to Lake county tomorrow to see whether Gans has improved through a rest and the mountain air. He will return Sunday and by Tuesday the match ought to be made. Paky McFarland is out of the running because he signed up with Brock and Freddie Walsh doesn't look good to the fans.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Terry Mustain, who whipped Jack "Twin" Sullivan handily at Goldenfield, is here and today posted Hlop to bind a match with Joe Thomas or any other fighter of his weight, which is also to go as a side bet if the other people want to wager on the outcome. Mustain says he came here with the intention of fighting and he will tackle any 165 pounder in the business who has a reputation. This money will be up in two weeks. Mustain is willing to fight twenty rounds or to a finish. All he wants is a change to get into a ring.

FLOATING IN AIR.
FLYING MACHINE TRIAL SUNDAY.
CALIFORNIA QUEEN TO BE THE FEATURE AT CHUTES.

The "California Queen," the aerofoil built at Chutes Park by Daniel J. Johnson, is to be given a public trial next Sunday afternoon after the baseball game. A private trial was held last Saturday which proved successful as far as it went, but the test gave inventor Johnson several new ideas and he expects to improve his machine considerably.

The trial will not be complete, for the engine is not yet fully constructed. A heavy wire will be attached to the front end of the flying machine for motive power and the test will include balancing and general features of equilibrium, together with the use of the tail for ascending and descending. Mr. Johnson and one or two of his assistants expect to get in the machine and test its carrying ability; also the steering apparatus.

This will be the first exhibition of an aerofoil ever given in Southern California, all the other airships having been on the dirigible balloon type. A. J. Zerbe, president of the Aero Club of California, has almost completed his machine, and expects to give a demonstration in about a month. He calls his invention the Zerbe Aerofoil, and those studying the problem of aerial navigation say he has the machine which eventually will prove the most practicable. The following explanation by President Zerbe regarding airships, etc., is timely:

"Since the art of navigating the air has come in with such a rush, the terms employed to designate the operator and apparatus are somewhat hazy. The apparatus is called an airship, a dirigible, or a dirigible balloon, and the manipulator is designated as an aviator, a pilot or an operator, as may strike the fancy of the writer, and all these terms mean the same thing to the public.

"There is a well-defined term for not only each kind of apparatus, but also for the operator who runs the machine. There are two classes of machines, the first, lighter than air, which have a gas field or appendage; and the second, heavier than air, which depend wholly on mechanical means for attaining flight.

"The balloon class is divided into two types, namely, those which are merely gas bags to operate free in the air, and dirigible balloons, which depend on some form of motive power to transport them from place to place. The latter art is called an aerostat; the dirigible balloon an aeroplan.

"In the heavier-than-air class there are three types: First, the helicopter, which depends on lifting wheels—that is, horizontally-disposed propellers mounted on vertical shafts, designed to raise the ship into space. Second, the orthopter, which has wings or beating parts to imitate bird flight; and, third, the aeroplan, which depends on plane surfaces wholly. Necessarily this entire class must have a motor for raising and propelling purposes.

"New forms of airships are being constructed, which combine the various types, and also combine the types of the two classes. Thus the aeroplan and helicopter types have been combined; also the aeroplan and orthopter, and several machines unite the aerostat with the aeroplan, and for these there has not yet been coined suitable terms. In course of time the nomenclature will be sufficiently definite to enable the public to know just what class or type of machine is referred to.

"It has been customary to designate the operator of a balloon as a pilot. The terms now employed are as follows: 1st. For an aerostat or an aeroplan the operator is an aeronaut, and for the aerofoil, or heavier than air, he is an aviator."

Horse and Trainer Ruled Off the Turf at New York Because Nag Had Been Given Stimulant.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
NEW YORK, July 23.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Trainer Arthur Carter and the horse Beardsall were ruled off the turf today by the stewards of the Jockey Club in session at Brighton Beach track, on charges of "doping." Beardsall is owned by W. Kuntze and came out of the paddock for the first race "steaming." He looked and acted like a crazy horse and Garner, who had the intention of fighting and he would be thrown. The horse attracted so much general attention that the stewards decided something was wrong with him and the track veterinarian made an examination. Carter denied he had used "dope" and said the horse was simply a bad actor.

THE CITY IN BRIEF

They've got the dust, too!

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Charged With Burglary.
Francisco Monahan was arrested in front of the City Hall yesterday morning and charged with burglary. The police say he entered a room at No. 825 East First street and stole clothing.

Sue Ten Thousand Dollars.

Hilda Concordia Clauson, mother of Gurli Clauson, who was fatally injured in a street car accident near Eagle Rock, June 8, 1907, brought suit in the United States Circuit Court yesterday against the Los Angeles Railway Company for $10,000 damages.

Disturber.

Angelo Ortiz was arrested yesterday and locked in the City Jail on a charge of disturbing the peace. He lives with his family at No. 815 Ducommun street. Ortiz attacked his wife in a fit of drunken rage yesterday and neighbors telephoned to the police.

Must Go Back.

United States Commissioner Williams ordered the deportation yesterday of three Chinese, who were tried near Calexico as they were trying to illegally enter this country. Another member of the same party was allowed a continuance in order to secure evidence of his alleged birth in San Francisco.

Really Man in Deep.

Will C. Prather, a real estate agent of this city, filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy in the United States District Court yesterday. His estimated liabilities are about $44,000, and assets $1600. The debts consist mainly of notes given to various parties. Mary C. Bassett of Los Angeles filed a bankruptcy petition, giving as her liabilities, $650, and nominal assets.

Last Red Out.

George Van Ness, the last of the reds in jail for ranting on the streets was released from service on the chain gang yesterday. Justice Frederickson gave Van Ness his freedom on an appeal, and thus saved him the trouble of asking Gov. Gillett for a pardon. The man reluctantly left the jail, where he has been posing for eight days as a martyr.

Picnic and Baptism.

The Sunday-school of the First Pentecostal Church of the Nazarene held a picnic at Playa del Mar yesterday, which was attended by between 200 and 300 persons. They varied the usual picnic programme by holding a religious service in the afternoon, following which Dr. P. F. Breese baptized a white woman and a colored man in the surf.

Died in Hawaii.

Friends in this city were notified yesterday of the death in Kohala, T. H., the 6th inst., of Mrs. Charlotte E. Derby, wife of Dr. Albert J. Derby, of Honolulu. Mrs. Derby, who was aged 55 years, was a native of Santa Ana, and lately resided in Riverside. She was the daughter of the late Capt. M. A. Abbott and Mrs. E. A. Abbott of this city, and was well known to many in Southern California, who will be grieved to learn of her demise.

Another Robertson.

Through a singular coincidence the disappearance was announced in San Diego of James Robertson, Hospital Corps, attached to the general recruiting station at No. 115 1/2 North Main street. Private Robertson was on duty yesterday as usual. The conf. on grew out of the fact that another man named Robertson, but not connected with the service, claimed to be at Fort Rosecrans, Saturday, when Private Robertson was there on official business. The other Robertson left baggage on a steamer from San Diego. It was found at San Francisco, the man's disappearance was reported, and erroneously held to be Private Robertson.

Lincoln's Mother Made It.

Among all the keepers in the possession of Mrs. Eliza Gilman of Ocean Park, there are none more valued than a worn old quilt made by Mrs. Abraham Lincoln's mother, and presented to her father, Rev. Alva Planchard, formerly of Des Moines, Iowa. "When I was married my father gave me the quilt because of its tender associations," said Mrs. Gilman yesterday. "It was a great friend of the Lincoln family, and watched the martyred President's rise to fame with the greatest pride. He always kept up his acquaintance with the family, although after moving west from Illinois he was not able to see them very often." Mrs. Gilman, who lives at Sunset and Lake avenues, Ocean Park, says she will gladly show her cherished quilt to any one who is interested in relics of that nature.

MISTAKE? NUNN TO GIVE BOND FOR TRIAL.

CHARGE OF MEDICAL PRACTICE WITHOUT LICENSE.

Neighbors at Sunland Say They Have Faith in the Man and His Sanatorium, and Believe That He Will Be Vindicated in Court of Tropic Justice.

G. G. Nunn, alleged to be maintaining a fake sanatorium for consumption sufferers in the Monte Vista Valley near Sunland, has notified Justice George E. Melrose of Tropic that he will appear for arraignment to charge of practicing without a license today, and will give bond. The arrangement with Justice Melrose was made from Los Angeles, where Nunn stayed yesterday. It is understood that Nunn will be released on $100 bail for his trial August 11, which is a date Justice Melrose has found agreeable to all parties.

The publication of the charges of the Harshman and C. J. Considine against the sanatorium has aroused many neighbors of the institution who regard Nunn and De Selim, his managers, as much abused men and perhaps the victims of malice. Five citizens of Sunland called on M. V. Harriman, president of the California Home Extension Association, yesterday to see what could be done to extricate Nunn and his sanatorium from the odium of the charges made against it. Mr. Harriman and others visited Grant R. Bennett, attorney for Southern California for the State Medical Board, who instituted the charge against Nunn before Justice Melrose, and sought to convince him that the institution was not a fraud and that it had done much good in the number of cases treated.

Mr. Harriman has his home near the sanatorium and he speaks thus of Nunn and De Selim: "The neighborhood regards them as men of integrity and honor. I personally know of four cases treated by them for charity and I know that the institution has made no money out of its patients. Probably in the seal of his faith in the treatment given, and may have promised cures that were not brought about, but there have been cases, one of which I know of, where the patients have really escaped the disease. All these things we will be able to show at the trial if necessary. But I believe the neighborhood, which knows Nunn well, will join with me in testifying to faith in him and in his ability as a physician." It is understood Nunn will not deny that he has practiced without a license. That he has done so is because he failed to pass the medical examination prescribed as qualification but at this same examination, he declares, 90 per cent. of the applicants for license failed because the examination was abstruse. He has written for indorsement from the Medical Association of Japan, Mo., where he formerly practiced.

HER DOOM SEALED BY SEA AND REEF.

"Times" Reporter, Only One Who Reaches Wreck, Sees the Anubis's Hopeless Position, and Visits the Castaways on the Rocks.

BY ARTHUR L. MACKAYE

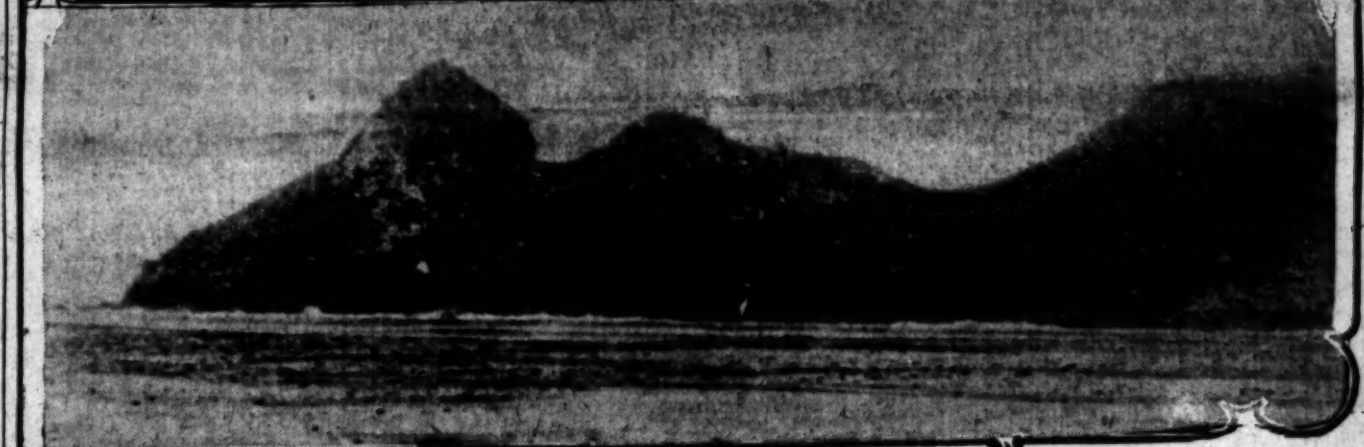

CAPT. ALBERT VON SALZEN of the rock-racked Kosmos liner Anubis, who keeps solitary vigil on his doomed ship at night, allowing none else aboard, may go down with her. The vessel's back is broken, and she is balanced on a submerged reef, with deep water fore and aft, into which she may slide and sink almost any moment.

Ten thousand pounds of dynamite is at the bottom of the ocean or buffeted by the waves, and there appears imminent danger of explosions. For carrying both high explosives and passengers the captain may be punished, as this is a violation of law. He made a sworn statement to the customshouse officials that he carried no passengers.

The castaways among the sea birds and flocks on a lonely island are weary of their camp, and eager to reach the mainland. Their experiences are described by a Times representative who went among them. No other newspaper had a reporter on the wrecked steamer or on the island where the crew and passengers are safe.

The Anubis seen from Flea Island.

Castle Rock or Flea Island.

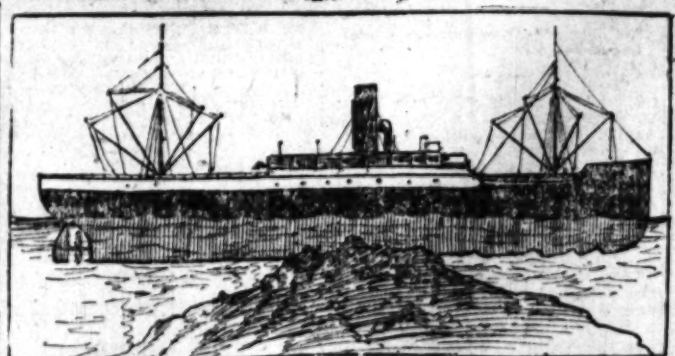

Anubis's lifeboat seeking help.

To be marooned on Castle Rock, or Flea Island, is not a wholly undisturbed delight. This queer-shaped islet among the kelp beds and reefs north of San Miguel Island is the home of thousands of sea gulls and cormorants, and when the passengers and crew of the ill-fated steamship Anubis, of the Kosmos line, invaded their domain there was tremendous excitement in the colonies. The flocks are rejoicing.

Under the lee of the islet is a narrow ledge of rock by which a landing can be made, but there are only a few spots where tents can be pitched. Four tents made from sails stretched on spars, were pitched by the crew in the most likely locations—little platforms stuck on the face of the rock at different heights and around corners.

In the fog-curtained dawn of Monday morning, after the crew and passengers of the Anubis had spent hours on the wrecked steamer fearing every moment that she would slide off the reef into deep water or break in two, the misty sight of the little island was a welcome one. Capt. Albert von Salzen immediately ordered away the boats, and under direction of Second Mate Albert Ohsen, the men proceeded to make a landing, establish a camp, and transfer plenty of provisions and water.

This precaution was taken for the reason that the boats of the steamer would hardly hold all the men of the crew and the passengers as well, altogether eighty-six souls. But when one of the Wreck of Liner Anubis on San Miguel Island.

The large steamship lies on a sunken reef and is in danger of breaking in two and sliding into deep water, as shown by the diagram below, made from a rough sketch by Capt. Pillsbury, who surveyed the wreck for the Marine Underwriters of San Francisco. The castaways from the vessel have made their home in four tents among the cormorants on Castle Rock. Ohsen established the camp and Lowe helped carry the news of disaster to the mainland in a small boat. They were photographed on the main deck of the Anubis by The Times representative, the only newspaper reporter on the scene.

large lifeboats started on a perilous voyage to the mainland, thirty-five miles away, to bring help, it carried nine men, including First Officer Johannes Dohrn and Third Officer Karl Chileans, bound for their native country, are working on the wreck throwing overboard the cargo of flour and grain. At night about forty men camp on Flea Island among the birds' nests.

HARD TO GET THERE.

The Times is the only newspaper which managed to place a reporter on the wreck. Getting out there was a strenuous proposition. Starting for Santa Barbara in hope of chartering a launch, I reached there shortly before midnight Tuesday, and found that the launch Charn, Capt. Frank Short, had left half an hour before for Gaviota, forty miles up the coast, to take off the crew of the lifeboat, which had also been wrecked, the craft being smashed to pieces in the surf near Point Concepcion.

I jumped on the moving train as it left Santa Barbara, and found that it did not stop at Gaviota. But Conductor Lewis slowed up, I made a jump in the dark, and landed in front of the only house in sight, where the station agent and operator and their families live.

What I needed even more than a breakfast was a camera. I learned that a young lady, Miss Isabel Behrens, was visiting the station agent, George Wilson, and that she had a camera. She was in bed, but through Mrs. Wilson I got the camera, borrowed it, and started for the pier.

Capt. A. F. Pillsbury, inspector and surveyor for the Marine Underwriters of San Francisco, brought the crew of the wrecked life boat from Point Concepcion lighthouse, and all boarded the little gasoline launch. Not once that day was there a sight of the sun, and through the fog we steered by compass, consulting the chart every few minutes.

The first vessel sighted was the revenue cutter Manning, Capt. Jacobs, which was standing by to render assistance to the crew. In case the wrecked Anubis should break and founder, the little launch rolled tremendously in the great swell until we got among the kelp, which grows there on the reefs as thick as grass, with strands often over sixty feet long and as tough as rope.

IN A KELP SEA.
Full speed ahead was given the launch, but we went slower and slower until finally we stuck half a mile from the wreck, and north of Castle Rock, in a thick bed of kelp. It was only after hard work and when the big tug sail was hoisted, that the launch finally plowed through the seaweed, entered a little channel of clear

WOMAN AFTER DANCE EVILS.

"Mother" Roberts Comes on Crusade for Purity.

Will Seek Evidence in the City's Public Halls.

Hopes to Stir Los Angeles Women to Activity.

"I am 'Mother' Roberts," said a smiling, good-looking woman of middle life, "and I am a grandmother, but you would not know it unless I told you, perhaps. My name is Mrs. Florence Roberts, the same as the actress, and I am going to help rescue poor girls who may be on the brink of destruction in this wicked, wicked Los Angeles."

"Mother" Roberts, who is quite well known in northern coast cities, has led numerous crusades for social purity. She is of English birth, refined and well educated. She will remain here several days.

"I am going to Chutes Park Sunday, mingle with the dancers, and see the wickedness for myself," she said. "Oh, it is terrifying. I understand. The boldness of these Los Angeles public dances. And I shall mingle with the people drinking there, and shall see with my own eyes all the glaring evidences of lack of social idealism. Yes, much is to be done, here."

"What, Mrs. Roberts, is your life work?" was asked.

"Anything that will promote the cause of social purity. I go personally into the red light district, talk to the girls and sing them songs, play my autoharp; and sometimes they come to see me, later on, and tell me how glad they were to listen to the music."

WINS WITH HER SONGS.

"I also compose music. One of my songs that touches many a weary heart is directed to the wandering girl. May I tell you how it runs? Here is the first verse:

"Somebody knocked at a door, today,
of a glided palace of sin,
and silently prayed for that wandering girl who had her guest 'Come in.'
Somebody unknown to that erring child had also entered there—
The Savior, with invitation so sweet had called with his messenger
On some mother's wandering girl."

There are four verses to this song and Mrs. Roberts sings it with pathos and feeling that is keenly touching. She says many girls have left glided doors and followed her to a purer life.

"Mothers do not know what their children are doing after school hours," says Mother Roberts. "They better play less whist and look after their children. And, oh, the terrifying inequalities of society. Do you know that the worst enemy a fallen girl has is her own sex? Woman simply will not have anything to do with her fallen sister, and that is what helps to keep the world back. Yes, men are not like that, but women have the terrible selfishness in their hearts."

SOCIAL WRONGS.
"And I believe there are too many marriages, for convenience. And oh, the dreadful race suicide that I know is going on around me on every hand."

DEATH NEAR TO AUTOISTS.

Three Have Close Call When Street Car Crashes Into Their Machine.

Russel H. Ballard, secretary and assistant general manager of the Edison Electric Company, and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert L. Harris of No. 1000 Alvarado street, narrowly escaped serious injury or death about 9 o'clock last night at Pico street and Hobart boulevard, when west-bound Pico-street car No. 333 collided with the rear end of their automobile. The tonneau was lifted from the body of the machine and hurled over the front end, carrying Mr. and Mrs. Harris with it. Ballard held to the steering wheel, preventing the machine from overturning. Before the car was stopped by Motorman C. A. Howard, the machine and its occupants were shoved twenty yards along the track.

Mrs. Harris was most seriously hurt. Her hands were lacerated, her face bruised and she sustained a severe shock. Her husband's face was bruised and his left shoulder wrenched. Ballard escaped uninjured. The machine was wrecked. Harris and his wife were placed in an automobile and driven home by E. R. Werdin of No. 1620 Hobart boulevard.

Just before the accident, Ballard and his party passed the car on approaching Hobart boulevard, where he intended to turn. As he swerved to cross in front of the car he thought it would stop before crossing the street. He checked the speed of his machine while on the track and the car dashed into it.

The fender was the only part of the street car that was damaged. It was necessary to use a set of jacks in lifting the automobile from the tracks. The machine was a forty-horse-power Buick.

VETERANS FAVOR BONDS.

Good Roads Rally Is Held at Soldiers' Home.

Thousands Persons Boost at Hazard Hill.

Veterans Pledge Aid to Highway Project.

Members of platoon of support for good roads bonds were received at Soldiers' Home yesterday afternoon. Gen. Adna R. Chaffee, U. S. A. (retired), addressed the group on the subject of highway bonds. Col. T. J. Cochran, U. S. A. (retired), presided. The meeting was the most enthusiastic yet held since the highway campaign opened. The distinguished speaker to fill the vacancy on the executive board of the Good Roads Association, succeeding A. P. Griffith of Azusa.

Long Beach Falls in.

Long Beach will fall into line with a big jollification this evening in honor of the near approach of the good roads bond election. The "anti" are so much in the minority at the seaside city that they are practically a negligible quantity, but the boosters are determined to set an example to districts where the enthusiasm may not be so intense. Speeches will be delivered by Secretary J. M. Eddy of the State Good Roads Association, Chairman C. D. Doggett of the Highway Commission, and L. C. Gates. "Beat Pasadena" is the war cry of the Long Beach boosters.

Speeches in Spanish.

At San Gabriel Mission tomorrow evening a stirring meeting will be held in favor of the good roads bonds. All the addresses will be in Spanish, and the project will be thoroughly explained to those voters who do not understand the English language well enough to appreciate the talks given in that tongue.

Boost at Beach.

Tuesday night Santa Monica and Ocean Park will take part in a big good roads demonstration to be held on the beach bordering the two cities. A fine program has been prepared for the occasion.

BUYS TO BUILD.

Twenty Thousand Dollars the Purchase Price of Valuable Location on Towne Avenue.

W. B. Merwin & Co. report the sale for George Niner to Carl Leonard of a lot 25x110 feet, on the west side of Towne avenue, between Third and Fourth streets for $20,000. The property is improved with a two-story frame building of merely nominal value.

The lot is valuable on account of its proximity to the Produce Market at Third and Central. Mr. Leonard, by acquiring this lot, now has a frontage of 75 feet on Towne avenue, a depth of 240 feet, and a frontage on Crocker street of 75 feet. The buyer already has had plans prepared for a two-story reinforced concrete building for the property. The building will be built for use as a wholesale house.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy Would Have Saved Him $100.00.

"In 1902 I had a very severe attack of diarrhoea," says R. N. Farrar of Cat Island, La. "For several weeks I was unable to do anything. On March 15, 1902, I had a similar attack, and took Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which gave me prompt relief. I consider it one of the best medicines of its kind in the world, and had I used it in 1902 believe it would have saved me a hundred-dollar doctor's bill."—[Adv.]

MILLION AND HALF EARNINGS.

Union's Revenues Tripled in a Single Year.

Loss by Fire Equals Income of Two Weeks.

Refineries Capacity Doubled: Special Dividend.

The following special report, full of interesting points, has just been issued under date of July 20, to the Union Oil Company's stockholders by President Stewart, by which it will be seen that the net earnings for the first half of 1938 lack only $600,000 of having increased a full million over the same period in 1937.

"The payment of dividend No. 144, remitted herewith, brings the aggregate amount paid in dividends to date, to $2,889,773.15.

"The net earnings of your company for the first six months of this year amounted to $1,600,247.35. For the same period last year they amounted to $566,253.75.

"In our letter of March 20, we reported the loss of a large tank at Port Harford by lightning. On May 13 the company lost another 27,000-barrel tank containing 11,000 barrels of oil, by lightning on its isthmian pipe line at Colon, involving a loss of about $25,000. And on August 20, a much more disastrous fire, involving an irreplaceable loss, in that the valuable lives of two men were destroyed in it, through their faithful efforts to protect your company's property. The fire is supposed to have originated from an electric wire, and destroyed three 47,000-barrel tanks, the pump station buildings, and some 54,000 barrels of oil, involving a loss aggregating $75,000.

"The Standard, Associated, Graciosa and Pinal Oil companies very promptly and generously tendered the use of several hundred thousand barrels of their field storage, so there will practically be no interruption of your company's business.

"Your company insures its own oil tanks and wells, and prior to this year never lost but one of its large tanks by fire. The loss from these three fires, involving a property loss of $125,000, represents the net earnings of only about fourteen and one-half days.

"Although the developing of the company's properties has not proceeded as rapidly as expected, the outlook is still very encouraging. The developments in the vicinity of the large property known as the Bell ranch, purchased last winter, indicate that it is much richer territory than we anticipated.

"The work of practically doubling the capacity of your company's refineries is now in progress.

"We have been pleased to answer all inquiries relating to declaration of dividend of $200 per share from the surplus profits of the company, as mentioned in circular dated June 24, 1938. Our stockholders seem practically of one mind as to the desirability of this action contemplated at meeting of stockholders August 20, 1938, and after proper ratification is recorded, subscriptions to the new issue of stock will be met by the dividend declared, as outlined in circular."

The dividend referred to in the last paragraph is one proposed in connection with the increase of capitalization. The stockholders are to receive it in the form of the company's promissory note payable in shares of the new stock.

PIKE AGAIN APPEARS.

PROMOTER WANTS POTOMAC.

L. E. Pike, the notorious promoter whose doings have been frequently noted in The Times, is again before the public in connection with California oil. About two years since he obtained control of to declaration of dividend of $200 per share from the surplus profits of the company, as mentioned in circular dated June 24, 1938. Our stockholders seem practically of one mind as to the desirability of this action contemplated at meeting of stockholders August 20, 1938, and after proper ratification is recorded, subscriptions to the new issue of stock will be met by the dividend declared, as outlined in circular."

The dividend referred to in the last paragraph is one proposed in connection with the increase of capitalization. The stockholders are to receive it in the form of the company's promissory note payable in shares of the new stock.

The Potomac was also promoted by him. He does not, however, control it. He wants to, and recently issued a statement to stockholders, telling them that their officers are drawing too much salary and making a mass of other charges. President Scott and Secretary Dye have just issued a reply. It accuses Pike of attempting to bribe the company's officers to loan him money. It denies his claim that he save the corporation $100,000. It says that there are vouchers to account for every cent expended, that dividends are paid on 2,000,000 shares and that $350,000 is being disbursed on the fourth dividend just declared. The officers say that their salaries are less than what this enormous sum of money, as he seems so anxious to criticize the honest management of the Potomac Oil Company."

A probable explanation of Pike's desire to control is found in the fact that the company is expected to sue him to compel him to return 725,000 shares of Potomac which he is alleged to hold unlawfully.

Lard has been in existence a long time—so has indigestion

Human nature is hard to solve. People who are most particular about adapting the weight of their wearing apparel to the season and its conditions, who never think of going out in a storm without an umbrella and rubbers, who would not sit in a draft for a farm, will day after day eat lard-soaked food and not realize for an instant that it is clogging their whole inner machinery and likely to result in a full-fledged case of indigestion.

Lard is produced from hog-fat, sometimes impure, always indigestible, and there's a good day coming when no one will think of using it for cooking. Cottolene is the only rational frying and shortening medium in the world. It is made from refined vegetable oil and choice beef suet—everything about it is digestible and conducive to health.

It is a product of Nature.

It will make pure, palatable, healthful food, and food which anyone can eat and enjoy without the after-pangs of a disordered stomach.

Try Cottolene once and you'll never-more be a friend to lard.

Cottolene is Guaranteed

We hereby authorize your grocer to refund your money in case you're not pleased after having given COTTOLENE a fair test.

Never Sold in Bulk

COTTOLENE is packed in pails with a patent air-tight top, to keep it clean, fresh and wholesome; also to prevent it from absorbing the disagreeable odors of the grocery, such as fish, oil, etc.

Waterproof Mattresses

Waterproof mattress is a necessity. For during the pores of the skin are wide awake, wide open and to absorb germs:

is undoubtedly the purest filling obtainable; being a vegetable fiber, it has none of the objectionable features of hair. Of superior resiliency than hair, having a coiled spring, it is readily sterilized and non-absorbent, owing to its peculiarly treated fibrous formation. It is hygienic, sanitary, non-heating, a non-conductor of heat, and peculiarly cool for summer use.

Famous Ostermoor Mattress is built up of, with sheets of specially treated and is wonderfully elastic and airy.

Sole Los Angeles agents for the year, and have every size in stock, at cost.

Christmas presents in July continue to be the order of things at scholarship headquarters. Charles Tyleas was one whom Santa Claus chose to honor yesterday, and Santa Claus in this case was a lady at the Mountain View Hotel in Orancho, Ariz. One new year's subscription and one new six months' subscription were in the mail bag from Mrs. A. William Neal, with seventeen coupons. This girl was working for Charles up to the fortieth line instead of the forty-third, where he has been for quite a while.

Perhaps this kind lady has been under the spell of the little Spanish lady's violin, or she is interested in helping so talented a boy to cultivate his great gift, but certainly she knows the best way of pushing his cause.

Margaret Chung also had a Christmas stocking in the mail bag, for she received a year's subscription each from Rev. W. S. Young of Los Angeles, from Mrs. Hollenbeck, and one from the Hollenbeck Home. Arthur Green, the young man with his eye on the law scholarship at the University of Southern California, was cheered by a new annual subscription from an unknown friend.

How are the leaders in the contest of 1937? Marguerite Jones has been keeping comparatively still for a few days. She came in yesterday to score in a thousand or so points; but the "blue-eyed" one was wearing an insatiable little smile which as much as said: "Just you wait until I get ready to show you that other book I have been filling up! Won't you be surprised?" Hazel Franklin has a lead in the hard to overcome, however. Her supporters seem bound to keep her ahead. The "Delta Chi" girl also has her reserves which she only knows about, and she is not telling right now. Reta Mitchell, one of last year's contestants and a dainty little miss, Vera Parkhurst, came in yesterday to say that they are working for Hazel Franklin. Hazel would like an opportunity to thank them for she does not even know the girls who are taking this great interest in her fortunes.

Pasadena Alice has disappeared from her accustomed haunts for a few days, and rumor says that she is busy taking everything in sight in a certain good field; but that is another story, as her book people say—a story probably of the day after tomorrow.

Ruth von Kirbach returned from Corona yesterday. She says she had the time of her life, and that her generous hostess, Mrs. Summerville, is the splendid friend to have. Ruth is a wonder, by the way, for she picked up two new annuals as soon as she reached Los Angeles. Ellen Robinson's Buckeye friends gave her nearly 2000 points yesterday, and Wallie Swain and Mary Pearl Pottol turned in a new year's subscription each.

Among the callers yesterday were Mrs. Fred B. Leavitt of Fresno and her little daughter, Ruth. Mrs. Leavitt is the sister of Eva Mathews, the girl who draws so well, and she intends to Interest the people of Fresno in this talented little sister.

TRIM YOUR COUPONS.
Children, and grown-ups, as well, trim the coupons you send into The Times office and sew them into neat packages of twenty-five, or put a rubber band about them! Do not send in ragged-looking coupons as they are difficult to count and clog the wheels of business. The name of the contestant should be written on the top coupon.

THE PRIZES.
Besides the valuable scholarships for which the young people are working, The Times offers fifteen cash prizes for those making the highest scores next to the top liner, who will receive the prize piano. The cash prizes totaling $1200 are arranged as follows:

FOWLER MEMORIAL BUILDING (IN MIDDLE) CONNECTING WINGS OF PASADENA HOSPITAL.

HOSPITAL HAS GREAT GROWTH.

Splendid Additions to Pasadena Institution.

Secretary Now Working for Endowment Fund.

Bested in Horse Trade, Man Commits Suicide.

Office of The Times, No. 25 E. Farmwood Ave., PASADENA, July 21.—"When I succeeded in raising $100,000 for an endowment fund for the Pasadena Hospital I will retire from the position of secretary," said Judge H. H. Klamroth yesterday, after he had concluded a description of the plans for the new administration building to be erected to the memory of Eldridge M. Fowler by the widow and daughter of the late millionaire, which will complete a series of buildings making Pasadena Hospital one of the most modern agencies for the sick in the West.

At present, the hospital owns buildings and lands valued at over $125,000 and is a splendid example of a charitable institution. Its success has been due to the combined donations of Charles M. Scoville, Mrs. Robert J. Burdette, O. S. A. Sprague, Eldridge M. Fowler and wife, Phil Armour, Violet King, Henry Durand and other patrons.

From the little hospital which was erected nine years ago, the building has gradually grown by additions and when the new $300,000 Fowler administration building is complete, it will be one of the finest hospitals west of the Mississippi.

The recent addition of the maternity ward, made possible through the generosity of Mrs. Robert J. Burdette, and the later completion of the Sprague Memorial building, proved great additions to the hospital, and the completion of the Fowler building the original plan of the directors will be realized.

Like the rest of the hospital, the new building is to be three stories high, of stone and burnt brick to match the Sprague Memorial building. It will join the latter through solariums at each end, with the main hospital, these sunrooms being two stories and forming a passage way from one building to another.

A basement in which will be a heating center for all the hospital, as well as a dining-room for the help, will really make the new building a four-story structure. Storerooms, a central storage plant, and an X-ray department with dark room will also be in the basement. On the first floor, the general administrative offices will be located and plans are made for a large reception hall, as well as quarters for the clerks and administrators.

On the third floor will be the most modern and scientific operating-rooms, that can possibly be constructed. The woodwork is to be made flush with the plastering, so that no dust can collect.

Members of the Pasadena Hospital Association are greatly pleased over the lowering of the assessment on the building from $25,000 to $20,000 by the County Board of Equalization.

Contractor Matthew Slavin, who will build the addition, will employ both non-union and union men, having lately thrown off the labor union collar. He believes in employing the best men obtainable, and says that what they are worth to him.

RANCHER KILLS HIMSELF.
Because he has been bested in a horse trade, is the only reason assigned for the act of Joseph Biedebach, an old resident of Lamanda Park district, who killed himself yesterday morning. He leaves a widow and seven children, and other relatives and friends, who are at a loss to account for his act.

Early yesterday morning he left the breakfast table, bidding his wife and mother "good-by." He complained of not feeling well, and expressed his intention of going upstairs and lying down. A muffled report from his room was next heard, and when his wife rushed to his side she found a revolver in his right hand and a great hole in his head, where a bullet had plowed.

Biedebach, who was of German descent and about 45 years of age, was a hard-working man. About two weeks ago he sold a horse to B. C. Lewis, who lived on Craig avenue, and who recently moved to Artesia, without having paid for the animal. This seemed to worry Biedebach.

The inquest will be held tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock in the chapel of the Adams, Turner & Stevens Company.

Constable Newell said late yesterday that Biedebach had made inquiry and found that Lewis was not in Artesia.

DEADLY.

DECISION IS SWEEPING.

Word was received yesterday that the Court of Appeals has reversed the decision of the late John C. Fitzgerald, City Attorney under William Waterhouse, on the question of raising the salaries of appointive employees while in office. The court holds that an appointive State, county or city officer has no "term of office," and therefore must come under the constitutional provision.

The ruling of the former City Attorney on this point caused the resignation of T. D. Allen from the office of City Engineer, and of Henry Ramel as Assistant City Engineer, during Mayor Waterhouse's administration.

IS MUCH IMPROVED.
With the return to consciousness and developments of twenty-four hours since the accident, physicians in attendance upon Mrs. James A. Gaut, who was hurt in a runaway accident Wednesday, are pleased over her rapid improvement. Signs of concussion of the brain are rapidly passing away, and there are no internal injuries, Mrs. Gaut is still at a loss to account for the time after the runaway upset until she became conscious at home, but her mind is perfectly clear on other matters.

Mrs. Parker Leach is quite recovered from the shock.

PASADENA BREVITIES.
In stepping off a North Loop street car yesterday afternoon, the six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Willborn of Altadena received a fracture of the large bone of the right leg. A passing automobile belonging to the City Dye Works at No. 21 East Colorado struck the boy just as he reached the ground. C. G. Sturtevant received a fracture of his right leg, H. A. Sturtevant, was out of danger from the injuries received in a street-car accident in an eastern city on Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Sturtevant had purchased their tickets and were to leave this morning, but the good news relayed last night left them undecided, though they may take the long trip for pleasure.

Mrs. Mary M. Coman and Elizabeth Grinnell, Miss L. C. Bennett, Dr. E. L. Conger, S. O. Bowen, W. D. Medill, E. W. Lines and James McKeay, officers and directors of the Pasadena Humane Society, went to Los Angeles yesterday to be sworn in.

The quarterly meeting of the Friends Church of Southern California will be held in the local central church beginning at 10 o'clock this morning. Sessions will be held tomorrow and Sunday.

Monday will be the last day that the City Council and Mayor will meet as a Board of Equalization. All protests must be filed on Monday, for the session closes on Monday afternoon. According to law, at the meeting of the board yesterday morning the Edison Electric Company stood for a reduction in its street lighting plant valuation from $75,000 to $10,000, and stated that it was not worth $1. The city now furnishes light for the street.

Ten Acres in Oranges Fetch Over Seventeen Thousand Dollars—Negotiations for Gas.

AZUSA, July 21.—The Chamber of Commerce has forwarded $100 to the Los Angeles County Good Roads Campaign Committee.

E. E. Pollard has sold his ten-acre orange grove, south of this city, to C. C. Peters of Salina, Kan., for $17,000.

J. C. Morton is building a five-room cottage on South Azusa avenue.

Brick is now being delivered on the ground to be used in the construction of the new Odd Fellows building. Active operations will start next week. About twenty of the local Y.M.C.A. boys will leave tomorrow for Camp Griffith, Catalina Island, in charge of Director Harold Ryerson. They will remain two weeks.

Officials of a gas company were in consultation with a committee from the Chamber of Commerce today and it looks as if gas will be an assured thing in Azusa within a short time.

A committee from the Chamber of Commerce is now preparing ground near the City Hall for a municipal nursery. It is the intention to give trees to people who will follow out a uniform system of setting out shade trees on the streets.

There will be an open-air meeting Saturday in the interest of good roads. Speakers from Los Angeles will be present.

"HARMLESS" CONCOCTION KILLS MONROVIA MAN.

death was due to a "harmless" concoction of drugs which he had been taking for some time.

LONG BEACH CAN DRINK SODA ON WHITE ELEPHANT.

City Council Thought no Refreshments Could Be Served on Park Bluffs but Attorney Removes the Doubt—Bathing Made Impossible by Oil.

LONG BEACH, July 21.—For a number of years the park property along the bluff has been a sort of white elephant for the city, the impression being that it had been decided to this city for park purposes exclusively and any violation would cause its reversion to the original claimants, the Long Beach Development Company. The latter decided it as a compromise in a suit instituted by the city to control all the beach property. Recently the occupancy of the park between Pine street and Pacific avenue by the Pacific Electric and Salt Lake and the attempt of different people to rent concessions within the depot pavilion, or outside of the park property, led to a revival of the old contention, and City Attorney Long was asked for an opinion which he submitted to the council today. His opinion contains no forfeiture clause and therefore the city can do many things for the comfort, benefit and pleasure of the public, among these would be the granting of privileges for amusements or refreshment. He advises the Council to let the people have what they want, such as may be required for the purposes intended.

OIL FROM ANUBIS?
Bathing was made impossible in the surf this morning by reason of a vast quantity of crude oil, which covered the surface of the bay. A number of people, who rushed pell-mell into the surf before the discovery, spent most of the morning cleaning themselves of the stuff. About noon the surf was so covered with oil that ropes were stretched along the beach, and bathers prohibited from entering the water. It is thought that the oil either washed from the hull of some steamer, or may have come from a broken oil tank of the wrecked steamer Anubis.

NOSILS LAUNCHED.
Yesterday evening, at the yards of the Rose Marine Works, Anubis Bay, a small nosil was launched. The nosil, owned by Thomas J. Nelson of Los Angeles was successfully launched. The affair was honored by the presence of Bishop I. B. Schmitz of Liberia, South Africa, whose five-year-old niece, Berthe Glenn, christened the boat. The nosil is 25 feet long, 6 feet 6 inches beam, and has a glass cabin 10 feet long. She is equipped with a ten-horsepower engine.

GIRL FRACTURES ELBOW.
One of her shoes catching on a step of the wooden stairway leading to the Pike from the Salt Lake depot, caused Miss Sarah Lawson, aged 17, of Bixbee, Ariz., to fall headlong this morning, fracturing her right elbow.

CARNIVAL OF THE SEA.
One hundred and twenty of the merchants and business men of the city are back of a movement to give a five days' Carnival of the Sea, the first week in September. A strong committee of twenty-five was appointed at a meeting last night to work out the details. One of the leading features will be a breakfast for the pier, erect two fire-houses, purchase a road roller and a sweeper and increase the fire protection. By this means it can place the city finances for the present year on a solvent basis.

LONG BEACH NOTES.
Chief Justice Charles N. Potter, of the Wyoming Supreme Court, who came here a few days ago today, the summer, was summoned home today by a telegram announcing the serious illness of his daughter.

Ray Lybarger, a boat agent, was arrested this morning charged with disturbing the peace by using objectionable language on the outer wharf. Russell of the launch Music is the complaining witness.

Dr. Edwin Southern appeared before the Board of Health tonight and in his program for Friday night, the closing session will be Saturday night, when the cantata, "The Crusaders," will be staged under the direction of J. B. Poulin of Los Angeles.

Mrs. Anna W. Heath died this morning after an illness of but a few hours. She was a native of Birmingham, N. Y. She leaves a widower and two children.

The Minnetonka Gopher Club of Southern California will have a basket picnic at the beach on Saturday. The city has given the use of the sun club for the dinner and social programme.
